

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF PUERTO RICO

-----X
IN THE MATTER OF THE DESIGNATION
OF A MAGISTRATE JUDGE FOR SERVICE IN ANOTHER DISTRICT

STANDING ORDER

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(f), in an emergency and upon the concurrence of the chief judges of the districts involved, a United States magistrate judge may be temporarily assigned to perform any of the duties specified in subsections (a), (b), or (c) of this section in a judicial district other than the judicial district for which he or she has been appointed. No magistrate judge shall perform any of such duties in a district to which he or she has been temporarily assigned until an order has been issued by the chief judge of such district specifying the emergency by reason of which the magistrate judge is being transferred, the duration of his or her assignment, and the duties which he or she is authorized to perform.

Due to the unavailability of all of the magistrate judges in the District of Puerto Rico, the assistance of a visiting magistrate judge is needed to perform the duties specified in 28 U.S.C. §§ 636(a)-(c). For this reason, the court certifies the need for assistance from Magistrate Judge Ramon Reyes, Jr., of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York.

THEREFORE,

IT IS ORDERED, with the concurrence of the Honorable Margo K. Brodie, Chief Judge of the Eastern District of New York, that United States Magistrate Judge Ramon Reyes, Jr., is hereby designated to perform any and all judicial duties designated under 28 U.S.C. § 636, subsections (a), (b), and (c), on an as needed basis, in the District of Puerto Rico for the period of August 17, 2022 through February 16, 2023, and for such additional time thereafter as may be required to complete unfinished business.

In San Juan, Puerto Rico, this 19th day of July, 2022.

Raúl M. Arias-Marxuach
Chief U.S. District Judge
